FCC COMMISSIONER JONATHAN S. ADELSTEIN ANNOUNCES STAFF CHANGE

Washington, DC – FCC Commissioner Jonathan S. Adelstein announced today that Renée Roland Crittendon will be joining his staff as Legal Advisor for Spectrum and International Issues. Ms. Crittendon has begun to transition into the office and will assume her new responsibilities on a permanent basis.

“I’m very pleased to have Renée join us with her sound judgment and rich background in telecom and spectrum policy. I’m grateful that she already has been able to help our office out during this transition time, and I look forward to making Renée a permanent member of my staff.”

Ms. Crittendon has worked at the Commission since 2001 and most recently serves as Deputy Bureau Chief in the Wireline Competition Bureau (WCB). Prior to that, she was Chief of the WCB’s Competition Policy Division where she managed proceedings on various matters, including local competition, broadband and IP-enabled services. Ms. Crittendon also served as Associate Division Chief of the Mobility Division of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau. Prior to joining the Commission, Ms. Crittendon served as Deputy Chief Counsel – Telecommunications for Prism Communication Services, Inc., and was an associate with Piper & Marbury (now DLA Piper) and Leventhal Senter & Lerman, PLLC. Ms. Crittendon received her J.D. from the George Washington University and her B.A. in Economics from Georgetown University.
